

All I Have

Verse 1: I want to sing You a love song, but what is there to say?
 I want to paint You a masterpiece, but it's all been done before some way and
 I want to dance You a movement of beautiful ballet,
 But all I have are these simple words, and what is there to say?

Chorus: I say hallelujah, praise be to my King.
 A million years won't be enough to sing You all I want to sing.
 Hallelujah, praise be to my King,
 Hallelujah, hallelujah, I guess that says everything.

Verse 2: I want to bring You an offering to set the sky ablaze.
 I want to build You a monument to testify to Your amazing ways and
 I want to play You a symphony of soaring sounds of praise
 But all I have are these simple words, and what is there to say?

[chorus]
 Bridge: Hallelujah, holy, holy, holy is the Lamb.
 Hallelujah, holy, holy is the Great I Am.
 Hallelujah, holy, holy, holy is the Lamb,
 Hallelujah...

[chorus]

© 2002 Beth Champion Mason

www.bethchampionmason.com